

PROUT – Rosealind “Rose” was born to John and Jane (nee Emmott) Magin in Dauphin, Manitoba on October 4, 1921. Rose grew up in Dauphin and received her education there. Her siblings consisted of three sisters; there were no boys in her family. Her father worked for the Canadian National Railway and her mother worked as a midwife. As Rose grew up, she became interested in athletic sports excelling in racing and high jump, winning numerous ribbons in area competitions; she also enjoyed playing softball. She enjoyed music and sang in the church choir and other choral events. Rose also played the banjo in her school orchestra. After Rose completed her education, she moved to Winnipeg where she was employed in a grocery store for approximately a year. She later returned to Dauphin to be closer to her family. It was in Dauphin where she was introduced to her future husband at a church social, and after several months of courtship she was united in Holy Matrimony to Clifford Robert Prout of Austin, Manitoba who was stationed at Dauphin with the Royal Canadian Air Force. After Cliff was discharged from the

RCAF, the couple moved to Winnipeg where Cliff was employed with the George McLean Wholesale Grocers. He later was transferred to Yorkton to serve as the manager of the branch. Their son, Robert was born in Dauphin, and their daughter, Dianne was born in Winnipeg. Once her children were in school, Rose decided to join the workforce again. She worked for the T. Eaton Company as supervisor of the catalogue sales office, a position she held for ten years. Rose accepted a position with the Canadian Cancer Society as the Secretary-Manager of the Yorkton and rural area office, a position she held for fifteen years before retiring. Rose enjoyed cooking and entertaining family and friends. She also enjoyed sewing and made most of her children’s clothing. Rose and Cliff were members of a square dance club and enjoyed several years of this activity. Rose and Cliff loved to travel in their motorhome to Alaska, Victoria, Ontario, and the eastern United States. They later sold their motorhome and opted for bus tours to the east coast, Florida, California, and Nashville; they also spent a few winters in Arizona. Rose’s church affiliation was with the Baptist Church in Dauphin and Yorkton. She was baptized in the First Baptist Church in Yorkton and taught Sunday school for many years. Rose also held various positions with the lady’s church group for several years. She was also active with the U.C.T. Ladies Auxiliary and served in the various offices of the organization for several years. Rose was a strong believer in her Lord and Saviour and read the Bible regularly and prayed daily for the safety and wellbeing of all her family. Rose is predeceased by her beloved husband, Clifford; two infant sons, Ronald, and Gerald; her parents, John and Jane Magin; her great-grandson, Mason Chupa-Exner; two sisters, Brenda Towner, and Muriel Hunter; her nephew, Daryl Hunter; two nieces, Lorraine Forbes and Joyce Asmunt; and her brothers-in-law, George Towner, Reg Moncrieff, and John Hunter. She leaves to cherish and celebrate her life her son, Bob (Carol) Prout and their family, Tara (Burton) and children Natalie, Nadia, and Jaxon; Kari (Chad) and children Kamryn, Jace, and Riley; Stacey (Jeremy) and children Lilya, Addisyn, and Hudson. Her daughter, Dianne (Jim) and their family, Corey (Samantha) and their daughter, Tamara; Sheena (Brock) and their children Tayla and Hailey. Her sister, Florence, and numerous nieces and nephews. A private family graveside service was held on Saturday August 28, 2021 at the Yorkton City Cemetery with Jason E. Kopan serving as the Celebrant. Those wishing to make a charitable contribution in memory of the Late Rose Prout may do so with a gift to the Canadian Cancer Society as a token of remembrance. Funeral arrangements were entrusted to Kopan’s Funeral Service, Highway #9 North, Yorkton. 306-783-0099 www.kopans.ca
